

This Week in Terrorism

03/26/2018-04/01/2018

Total Attacks: 15 Total Killed: 38 Total Injured: 40

From last week attacks decreased by 50%, fatalities increased by 15%, and injuries decreased by 87%.

Source

Summary of Attacks

Largest

Four young girls ages thirteen to eighteen entered Maiduguri's Muna Garage neighborhood late Friday night. Between 9 pm and 9:30 pm, all four of them exploded their devices. Two civilians were killed and 13 more injured. No group has claimed responsibility, but the location and method of attack indicates Boko Haram.

Source

Attackers

PKK/YPG carried out their first attack in two weeks on Monday, planting a bomb inside a family home and killing three of its residents in Afrin, Syria. In Odiang, Philippines, a Barangay Peacekeeping Action Team member, was shot in the thigh at his home Friday evening. No group has claimed responsibility, but the victim heard the retreating gunmen shout "Mga NPA ni, hapa!" (We are NPA, get down!). That same day in Siirt, Turkey, six security officials were killed and seven injured by suspected PKK members while guarding a construction site. Naxalites are suspected in two attacks: the stabbing of a youth leader in Bijapur, India on Tuesday, and an IED attack in nearby Chinnakorepal on Friday. On Thursday, AQAP claimed its first attack since January when it ambushed and decapitated twelve Yemeni soldiers in AlSafra. That same day ISIS carried out two attacks. An IED attack in Manbij, Syria killed two: a British special forces soldier and an American. This was the first British soldier killed in the fight against ISIS. A suicide bombing on a checkpoint in Ajdabiya, Libya killed six and injured five. Al-Shabaab claimed two attacks in Somalia: a car bombing in Mogadishu on Thursday that killed a Red Cross employee and injured two others, and an IED attack on an African Union Peacekeeping base in Bulamareer on Sunday. In Muna Garage, Nigeria, four girls likely recruited by Boko Haram detonated explosive vests Friday night killing two and injuring 13 more. Also on Friday a suicide bomber suspected to be a member of the Taliban killed a provincial council member in Watapur, Afghanistan. Three attacks were carried out by unknown groups.

By Region

Middle East

Syria suffered two attacks this week. In Afrin, suspected PKK/YPG fighters planted a bomb inside a family home and killing three of its residents on Monday. In Manbij, an IED attack on Thursday killed two: a British special forces soldier and an American. This was the first British soldier killed in the fight against ISIS. An attack in Al Safra, Yemen that left twelve Yemeni soldiers dead on Thursday was claimed by AQAP. The next day in Watapur, Afghanistan a suicide bomber suspected to belong to the Taliban killed a provincial council member. Iraq was hit by one attack this week, a car bombing on Friday in Kirkuk province that injured a government official and his daughter.

Africa

Somalia was struck by two attacks this week, both claimed by Al-Shabaab. On Thursday, a car bombing in Mogadishu killed a Red Cross employee and injured two others. Days later, on Sunday, an African Union Peacekeeping base in Bulamareer was hit by an IED. Libya was attacked on Thursday when a suicide bombing on a checkpoint in Ajdabiya killed six and injured five. Nigeria suffered this week's largest attack in Muna Garage, when four girls likely recruited by Boko Haram detonated explosive vests around 9 pm on Friday night.

Asia-Pacific

India was attacked by suspected Naxals twice this week. On Tuesday, a youth leader was stabbed to death in Bijapur, and nearby Chinnakorepal was struck by an IED on Friday. In Odiong, Philippines, a Barangay Peacekeeping Action Team member was shot in the thigh at his home Friday evening. No group has claimed responsibility, but the victim heard the retreating gunmen shout "Mga NPA ni, hapa!" (We are NPA, get down!). Pakistan suffered one attack this week: a police vehicle driving through Dera Ismail Khan was hit by an IED, killing three and injuring two.

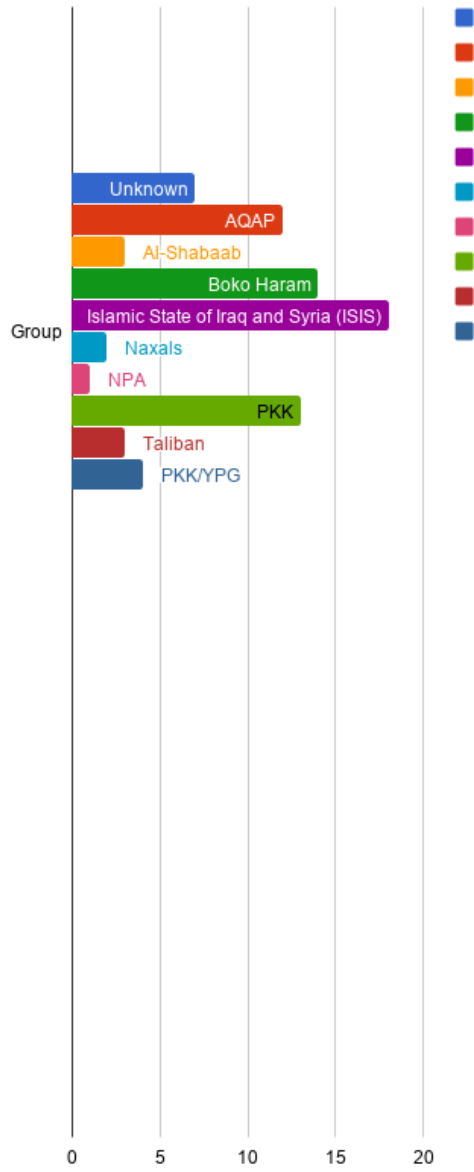

Eastern Europe

Montenegro suffered its first attack since February this week. In Bijelo Polje on Sunday a car bomb went off in front of the home of noted journalist Sead Sadikovic. It is unknown whether or not he was the target, but he had been investigated organized crime groups.

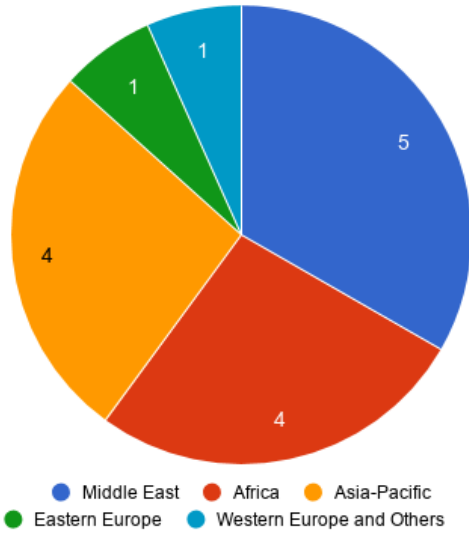

Western Europe and Others

An attack in Siirt, Turkey killed six security officials injured seven others. The officials were guarding a construction site when they were attacked by militants suspected to belong to the PKK.

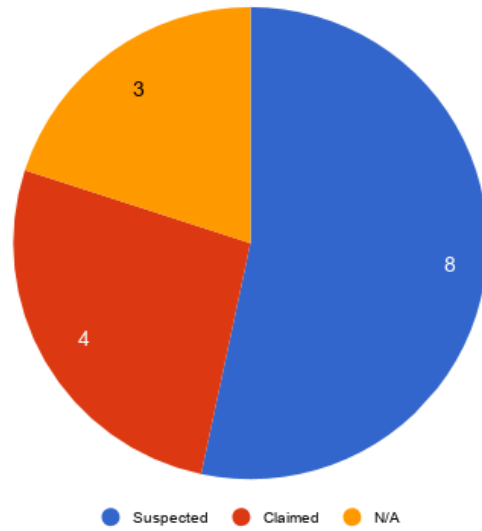

Total Casualties by Group

Attacks by Region

Attribution of Attacks

Attacks Worldwide

Our Solution

We believe that education is the key to a better future. Rise to Peace (R2P) is a 503c organization focused on empowering peace, education and tolerance as tools to eliminate extremist ideology. Our Active Intelligence Database is an initiative created by the Rise To Peace team in an effort to spread information and facilitate education on the threat of global terrorism. We record daily global terrorist attacks with our innovative Active Intelligence Database, used by world class researchers. Please click here for more information. All donations are tax deductible.