

This Week in Terrorism

10/22/2018-10/28/2018

Total Attacks: 19 Total Killed: 36 Total Injured: 71

From last week attacks decreased by 49%, fatalities decreased by 38%, and injuries decreased by 12%.

Source

Largest Attack

On Tuesday a car bomb killed six and injured thirty in Qayyarah, Iraq. The vehicle was parked outside a crowded restaurant. Authorities are blaming ISIS, but no group has claimed responsibility.

Attackers

Abu Sayyaf is suspected in one attack this week in Jolo, Philippines, where they abducted a teacher.

Boko Haram claimed one attack and is suspected in one more. On Monday, suspected Boko Haram militants raided Mifah village, killing two and injuring six. On Saturday, attackers shot at a military base in Borno, Nigeria killing one and injuring four. Boko Haram claimed the attack.

The Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) claimed one attack and is suspected in three more. On Monday, a suspected ISIS IED killed one person outside of Homs, Syria. The next day, a car bomb killed six and injured thirty in Qayyarah, Iraq. This was the week's largest attack. On Saturday, an ambush on police in al-Tarfawi killed one. ISIS claimed an attack al-Foqha, Libya that killed four local government and police officials. Ten more people were injured in the Sunday attack.

Naxalites are suspected in two attacks this week. On Saturday, an IED in Bijapur, India killed five CPRF soldiers and injured one more. The next day, suspected Naxals targeted politician Nandal Mudiya in his home in Palnar, India, leaving him critically injured.

The New People's Army (NPA) is suspected in one attack in Mainit, Philippines. Attackers killed one soldier and injured one more.

Taliban claimed two attacks this week, both in Afghanistan. On Monday an attacker killed one NATO soldier and injured two others in Shindand. The Taliban claimed an attack in Maidan-Shar, Afghanistan, where a suicide bomber on a police bus killed five and injured ten on Saturday.

Seven attacks were carried out by unidentified groups.

Regions

Middle East

Afghanistan suffered two attacks this week, both of which were claimed by the Taliban. On Monday an attacker killed one NATO soldier and injured two others in Shindand. On Saturday, a suicide bomber in Maidan-Shar targeted a police bus, killing five and injuring ten.

Iraq was hit by two attacks this week. On Tuesday a car bomb killed six and injured thirty in Qayyarah, Iraq. This was the week's largest attack. On Saturday, a policeman was killed in al-Riyadh by ISIS militants during their attack on a police patrol. Several others are expected to have been killed as well, but the number is unknown.

Israel suffered an attack in Juhor ad-Dik, where an IED detonated on Monday. No casualties resulted.

Syria was hit by one attack on Monday, when a suspected ISIS IED killed one person outside of Homs.

Africa

Libya suffered one attack this week in al-Foqha where four local government and police officials were killed. Ten more people were injured in the Sunday attack, for which ISIS claimed responsibility.

Mali was hit by two attacks. On Sunday, a roadside bomb in Konna killed two UN Peacekeepers. Another peacekeeping mission was attacked the same day in Ber, where two peacekeepers were killed and five injured by militants wielding firearms, grenades, and rockets.

Nigeria also suffered two attacks. On Monday, suspected Boko Haram militants raided Mifah village, killing two and injuring six. Boko Haram claimed an attack on Saturday, in which attackers shot at a military base in Borno killing one and injuring four.

Somalia

Asia Pacific

India suffered five attacks this week. Several separate attacks occurred on Friday. One person was killed in a grenade attack in Wagoora Nowgam in Srinagar. A soldier was stoned to death by a mob in Anantnag District. Two were killed in two separate terrorist attacks in Malgunipura, Sopore. One person was killed in an attack on an Army camp in Luragam. In all incidents, the militants' affiliations are unknown. On Saturday, an IED in Bijapur killed five CPRF soldiers and injured one more. The next day, suspected Naxals targeted politician Nandal Mudiyaami in his home in Palnar, leaving him critically injured.

Pakistan was hit by two attacks. On Tuesday, 4 civilians were shot after being abducted in North Waziristan. In a separate incident, 2 others were injured in an attack on a security check post in Khola Tehsil. The responsible party for the attacks is unknown.

The Philippines suffered three attacks.

A teacher was abducted from Jolo on Monday. Abu Sayyaf is suspected in the attack. The same day, suspected NPA attackers killed one soldier and injured one more in Mainit. On Friday, twin roadside bombs detonated near military trucks in Datu Saudi-Ampatuan, but left no casualties.

Attacks Worldwide

Our Solution

We believe that education is the key to a better future. Rise to Peace (R2P) is a 503c organization focused on empowering peace, education and tolerance as tools to eliminate extremist ideology. Our Active Intelligence Database is an initiative created by the Rise To Peace team in an effort to spread information and facilitate education on the threat of global terrorism. We record daily global terrorist attacks with our innovative Active Intelligence Database, used by world class researchers. Please click here for more information. All donations are tax deductible.