

This Week in Terrorism

04/2/2018-04/08/2018

Total Attacks: 20   Total Killed: 60   Total Injured: 163

From last week attacks increased by 33%, fatalities increased by 58%, and injuries increased by 308%.

Source

Summary of Attacks

Largest

Nigeria's Boko Haram Islamic extremists attacked two villages on the outskirts of the northeastern city of Maiduguri late Sunday, killing at least 15 people, the military said Monday. The Boko Haram militants tried to enter the center of Maidugiri, the provincial capital of Borno state, but army soldiers repelled them, gunning down six armed insurgents and seven suicide bombers, said army spokesman Col. Onyema Nwachukwu. At least 83 people were injured and are receiving medical attention, he said.

Source

Attackers

Al-Shabaab carried out two attacks this week, both in Somalia. The first occurred on Friday, when two car bombs struck security checkpoints in Mogadishu. One was near a major airport and wounded two soldiers. In the other, two gunmen fired at soldiers near a major road before detonating their bomb, killing one soldier. Al-Shabaab claimed responsibility in a statement. In the second attack two days later, a Somali intelligence and security officer was shot and killed by gunmen in Mogadishu's Elasha neighborhood. Boko Haram is suspected in two of this week's attacks. Militants attacked two villages on the outskirts of Maiduguri, Nigeria late Sunday, killing at least fifteen people and injuring eighty-three more. The next day in Cameroon, five soldiers were killed in an attack on a military post in Logone-et-Chari. Three other soldiers were wounded. Lashkar-e-Taiba are suspected in the kidnapping of a father-son pair in Bandipora, India on Tuesday. The father escaped with bullet wounds while the son was found decapitated two days later. This marks the first Lashkar-e-Taiba attack recorded since February. On Sunday, Naxals killed Kalmu Hunga, the Sarpanch of Badesetti Village. The Sarpanch was having meal with his friends at the house, when a group of militants stormed in and stabbed him to death. The PKK claimed one attack and are suspected to be behind one more, both in Turkey. In the first, a village guard was killed and six others were wounded in an attack in Kulp, on Tuesday. On Thursday, the PKK claimed responsibility for the killing of nine Turkish soldiers in Bayazid District. The New People's Army (NPA) claimed responsibility for Tuesday's fatal shooting of Eustacio Porras, former village chief of Lunoy. The Taliban and Islamic State carried out two joint attacks this week, one on a checkpoint in Takhta that left six dead, and another in Alingar that killed three. These are some of the first joint attacks between the two groups. The TTP is suspected in the killing of four Christians in Quetta, Pakistan on Monday evening. The victims were gunned down outside a relative's home in the Shah Zaman neighborhood. Eight attacks were conducted by unknown groups.

By Region

Middle East

Three attacks occurred in Afghanistan this week. In Kabul's Macroroyan neighborhood, unknown attackers detonated several IEDs along a road as an Afghan National Army vehicle drove by on Wednesday, injuring at least six of the soldiers. On Sunday, the Taliban and Islamic State carried out two joint attacks in Afghanistan, one on a checkpoint in Takhta that left six dead, and another in Alingar that killed three. In Iraq a suicide bomber attacked the al-Hal party's headquarters in Hit, killing one and injuring four including parliamentary hopeful Zeinab Abdel Hamid on Saturday. The next day troops were searching the site when they were targeted by another suicide bomber, leaving six injured. Also on Sunday, one police officer was injured and another killed when a bomb blast targeted their patrol in Tal Afar. Syria suffered two attacks. On Friday, one person was killed and six more wounded when an explosive device detonated in a car parked near Al Khansaa mosque in Barzeh. In al-Bab another car bomb near a mosque injured eight and killed twenty on Saturday.

Africa

Burundi suffered its first attack since 2017. A grenade attack in Gitega killed two and injured fourteen. In Nigeria, Boko Haram militants attacked two villages on the outskirts of Maiduguri late Sunday, killing at least fifteen people and injuring eighty-three more. The bombing was this week's largest attack. Boko Haram also carried out an attack in Cameroon, where five soldiers were killed at a military post in Logone-et-Chari. Al-Shabaab hit Somalia twice this week. Once on Friday, when two car bombs struck security checkpoints in Mogadishu and again two days later, when a Somali intelligence and security officer was shot and killed by gunmen in Mogadishu's Elasha neighborhood.

Asia-Pacific

In Pakistan the TTP is suspected of killing of four Christians in Quetta. The victims were gunned down outside a relative's home on Monday evening in the Shah Zaman neighborhood. Pakistan suffered a second attack later in the week when five security officials were injured in an IED attack in Mir Ali. The New People's Army (NPA) claimed responsibility for the Philippines's only attack this week: the shooting of Eustacio Porras, former village chief of Lunoy, on Tuesday. India suffered two attacks. One, carried out by Lashkar-e-Taiba, saw a father-son pair abducted from Bandipora on Tuesday. The father escaped with bullet wounds while the son was found decapitated two days later. The other carried out by Naxals, killed Kalmu Hunga, the Sarpanch of Badesetti Village. The Sarpanch was having meal with his friends at the house, when a group of militants stormed in and stabbed him to death.

Western Europe and Others

Turkey was hit by two attacks as well, both committed by the PKK. In the first, a village guard was killed and six others were wounded in an attack in Kulp, on Tuesday. On Thursday, the PKK claimed responsibility for the killing of nine Turkish soldiers in Bayazid District.

Total Casualties by Group

Attacks by Region

Attribution of Attacks

Attacks Worldwide

Our Solution

We believe that education is the key to a better future. Rise to Peace (R2P) is a 503c organization focused on empowering peace, education and tolerance as tools to eliminate extremist ideology. Our Active Intelligence Database is an initiative created by the Rise To Peace team in an effort to spread information and facilitate education on the threat of global terrorism. We record daily global terrorist attacks with our innovative Active Intelligence Database, used by world class researchers. Please click here for more information. All donations are tax deductible.