This Week in Terrorism

 $11/05/2018\hbox{-}11/11/2018$

Total Attacks: 27 Total Killed: 57 Total Injured: 163

From last week attacks decreased by 27%, fatalities decreased by 15%, and injuries decreased by 12%.

Source

Largest Attack

On Friday, three bombs placed around a Mogadishu hotel killed forty-six and injured 106. Four attackers tried to enter the hotel through the hole left by the bomb blast, but were killed by security forces. Two more attackers were killed inside their rigged vehicles. Al-Shabaab claimed the attack.

Attackers

Al-Shabaab claimed one attack this week and are suspected in three more. On Tuesday, Al-Shabaab attacked an AMISOM convoy in Mogadishu, Somalia; causing no casualties. AMISOM soldiers killed 4 civilians in the ensuing firefight. On Thursday, Mogadishu was attacked again when a car bomb placed under the vehicle of legislator Abdiweli Mohammed Ibrahimk detonated, killing him and injuring another. On Friday, three bombs placed around a Mogadishu hotel killed forty-six and injured 106. Al-Shabaab claimed this attack, which was the week's largest. On Saturday, suspected Al-Shabaab militants injured one in an attack on a Red Cross vehicle in Ruqa, Kenya.
Boko Haram is suspected in five attacks this week, all in Nigeria. On Monday, Boko Haram attacked Nigerian Army positions in Kumshe, but left no casualties. The next day, one soldier was killed and four were wounded in a Boko Haram landmine explosion in Mallam Fatori. On Wednesday, Boko Haram attacked Katarko village. The number of casualties has yet to be reported. The next day, an attack on a convoy in Ngala killed nine. On Saturday, another village, Jimine, was attacked. Again, casualties have not yet been reported.

Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) claimed one attack and is suspected in two more. A car bomb detonated near restaurant in Mosul, Iraq killed three and injured twelve on Thursday. The next day inMelbourne, Australia, an attacker with a knife killed one person and injured twelve before being killed by police. ISIS claimed the attack. On Sunday, an ISIS force attempting to penetrate Syria through Al-Anbarprovince, Iraq, was stopped by military forces. Casualties are unknown.

Islamic State of West Africa Province (ISWAP), a new Boko Haram affiliate, claimed its first attack this week in Kukawa, Nigeria. Gunmen attacked trucks and a military base, leaving one soldier injured and sixteen missing. Jaish-e-Mohammed is suspected in one attack this week. Militants targeted a police patrol in Handwara, but left no casualties.

National Liberation Army (ELN) bombed an oil pipeline in Toledo, Colombia, but left no casualties.

Naxals are suspected in three attacks this week, all in India. On Wednesday, a village sarpanch was beaten to death by in Sukma. The next day, an explosive-laden bus detonated in Dantewada, killing five and injuring two. On Sunday, an IED killed one person in Kattakal.

New People's Army (NPA) is suspected in one attack this week. On Tuesday, the group killed a village watchman in Negros Oriental, Philippines.

Turkistani Islamic Party is suspected in one attack as well. On Wednesday, militants attacked Syrian Army positions in north Hama, Syria.

Ugandan Allied Democratic Forces killed six people and kidnapped five more in Beni, Democratic Republic of the Congo on Saturday.

YPG are suspected in one attack on Wednesday, when a YPG terrorist fired into Turkey from Syria and was killed by Turkish soldiers in Sanhurfa, Turkey.

Six attacks were carried out by unknown groups.

Regions

Middle East

Iraq was hit by two attacks this week, both of which are being blamed on ISIS. A car bomb detonated near restaurant in Mosul killed three and injured twelve on Thursday. On Sunday, an ISIS force attempting to penetrate Syria through Al-Anbar province was stopped by military forces. Casualties are unknown.
Syria was hit by two attacks this week. On Wednesday, Turkistani Islamic Party terrorists attacked Syrian Army positions in north Hama. The next day, a car bomb blast near a school in Azaz injured seven children.

Africa

Democratic Republic of the Congo was hit by one attack this week. The Ugandan Allied Democratic Forces killed six people and kidnapped five more in Beni, Democratic Republic of the Congo on Saturday.
Kenya suffered one attack this week. On Saturday, suspected Al-Shabaab militants injured one in an attack on a Red Cross vehicle in Ruqa.

Nigeria was hit by six attacks this week, the most of any country. In Kukawa, gunmen attacked trucks and a military base, leaving one soldier injured and sixteen missing. On Monday, Boko Haram attacked Nigerian Army positions in Kumshe, but left no casualties. The next day, one soldier was killed and four were wounded in a Boko Haram landmine explosion in Mallam Fatori. On Wednesday, Boko Haram attacked Katarko village. The number of casualties has yet to be reported. The next day, an attack on a convoy in Ngala killed nine. On Saturday, another village, Jimine, was attacked. Again, casualties have not yet been reported.

Somalia suffered three attacks this week. On Tuesday, Al-Shabaab attacked an AMISOM convoy inMogadishu, causing no casualties. AMISOM soldiers killed 4 civilians in the ensuing firefight. On Thursday, Mogadishu was attacked again when a car bomb placed under the vehicle of legislator Abdiweli Mohammed Ibrahimk detonated, killing him and injuring another. The next day, three bombs placed around a Mogadishu hotel killed forty-six and injured 106. Al-Shabaab claimed this attack, which was the week's largest.

Asia Pacific

India suffered four attacks this week. On Wednesday, A village sarpanch was beaten to death by Naxals in Sukma. The next day, an explosive-laden bus detonated in Dantewada, killing five and injuring two. On Sunday, suspected Jaish-e-Mohammed militants targeted a police patrol in Handwara, but left no casualties. The same day, a suspected Naxal IED killed one person in Kattakal.

Pakistan was hit by two attacks this week. On Monday, one soldier was killed and another injured in an IED explosion in Datthakel. On Wednesday, three soldiers were injured in another IED explosion in nearby Razmak.

Philippines suffered three attacks this week. On Tuesday, the NPA killed a village watchman in Mantiquil. The same day a human rights lawyer was shot by two gunmen in Barangay 5. On Sunday, a grenade attack injured two in Pikit.

Latin America

Colombia suffered its first attack since January this week. The National Liberation Army (ELN) bombed an oil pipeline in Toledo on Thursday but left no casualties.

Western Europe and Others

Australia suffered its first attack since July on Friday in Melbourne. An attacker with a knife killed one person and injured twelve before being killed by police. ISIS claimed the attack.

Turkey was hit by one attack this week. On Wednesday, a YPG terrorist fired into Turkey from Syria and was killed by Turkish soldiers in Sanhurfa.

Attacks Worldwide

Our Solution

We believe that education is the key to a better future. Rise to Peace (R2P) is a 503c organization focused on empowering peace, education and tolerance as tools to eliminate extremist ideology. Our Active Intelligence Database is an initiative created by the Rise To Peace team in an effort to spread information and facilitate education on the threat of global terrorism. We record daily global terrorist attacks with our innovative Active Intelligence Database, used by world class researchers. Please clickhere for more information. All donations are tax deductible.