This Week in Terrorism

02/04/2019-02/10/2019

Total Attacks: 12 Total Killed: 24 Total Injured: 190

Compared to this time last year, attacks decreased by 61%, fatalities decreased by 50%, and injuries decreased by 1,014%.

Source

Largest Attack

On Sunday, a grenade attack in Lalchowk injured eleven. Jaish-e-Mohammed claimed the attack.

Attackers

Al-Shabaab claimed three attacks this week, all in Somalia. On Monday in Bosaso, they killed a port boss and nine others in a car bomb explosion. The same day, another attack killed a port director in Hamarweyne. The director was killed by gunmen. On Tuesday an IED planted on the side of the road in Dhanaane killed two Somali colonels.

Boko Haram claimed one attack and are suspected in one more, both in Nigeria. On Monday, the group claimed responsibility for an attack in the Adamawa province, which killed six people. On Sunday, the group attacked nearby Madagali, killing eleven people while storming the village.

Jaish-e-Mohammed claimed one attack this week on Sunday in Lalchowk, which injured eleven.

An unknown group threw a pipe-bomb at Israeli troops in Jenen, Israel. The explosion killed one Palestinian attacker and wounded another.

An unknown attacker blew up an explosive motorbike by a military checkpoint in Tambunan, Philippines, which injured one person in the explosion.

Unknown attackers set off two explosions in the Philippine Lanao Del Norte province on Tuesday. No one was injured in either explosion.

Regions

Middle East

Afghanistan suffered one attack this week, in Taloqan, unknown attackers stormed a radio stations and killed the two journalists on air.

Israel was hit by one attack this week. An unknown group threw a pipe-bomb at Israeli troops in Jenen. The explosion killed one Palestinian attacker and wounded another.

Africa

Nigeria suffered two attacks this week, both carried out by Boko Haram. The group claimed responsibility for an attack in the Adamawa province, killing 6 people. On Sunday, they attacked nearby Madagali, killing eleven people while storming the village.

Somalia was hit by three attacks this week, all carried out by Al-Shabaab. AOn Monday in Bosaso, the group killed a port boss and nine others in a car bomb explosion. The same day, they claimed responsibility for another attack that killed a port director in Hamarweyne. The director was killed by gunmen. On Tuesday an IED planted on the side of the road in Dhanaane killed two Somali colonels.

Asia Pacific

Philippines suffered three attacks this week. An Unknown attacker blew up an explosive motorbike by a military checkpoint in Tambunan on Tuesday, which injured one person in the explosion. The same day,unknown attackers set off two explosions in the Lanao Del Norte province, one Kauswagan and one in Lala. No one was injured in either explosion.

India was hit by two attacks. On Wednesday unknown attackers threw a grenade at a CPRF camp in Laroo, injuring one soldier. On Sunday, another grenade attack in Lalchowk injured eleven. Jaish-e-Mohammed claimed the attack.

Attacks Worldwide

Our Solution

We believe that education is the key to a better future. Rise to Peace (R2P) is a 503c organization focused on empowering peace, education and tolerance as tools to eliminate extremist ideology. Our Active Intelligence Database is an initiative created by the Rise To Peace team in an effort to spread information and facilitate education on the threat of global terrorism. We record daily global terrorist attacks with our innovative Active Intelligence Database, used by world class researchers. Please click here-formore information. All donations are tax deductible.