

This Week in Terrorism

02/25/2019-03/03/2019

Total Attacks: 13 Total Killed: 45 Total Injured: 67

Compared to this time last year, attacks decreased by 52%, fatalities decreased by 10%, and injuries decreased by 14%.

Source

Largest Attack

On Thursday, Al-Shabaab claimed another attack in Mogadishu, where militants detonated a bomb in a business center and then began shooting. Eleven people were killed and thirty-five injured.

Attackers

Al-Shabaab claimed one attack and are suspected in one more, both in Somalia. Suspected Al-Shabaab militants gunned down nine street cleaners on Tuesday in a village near Mogadishu. On Thursday, the group claimed another attack in Mogadishu, where militants detonated a bomb in a business center and then began shooting. Eleven people were killed and thirty-five injured.

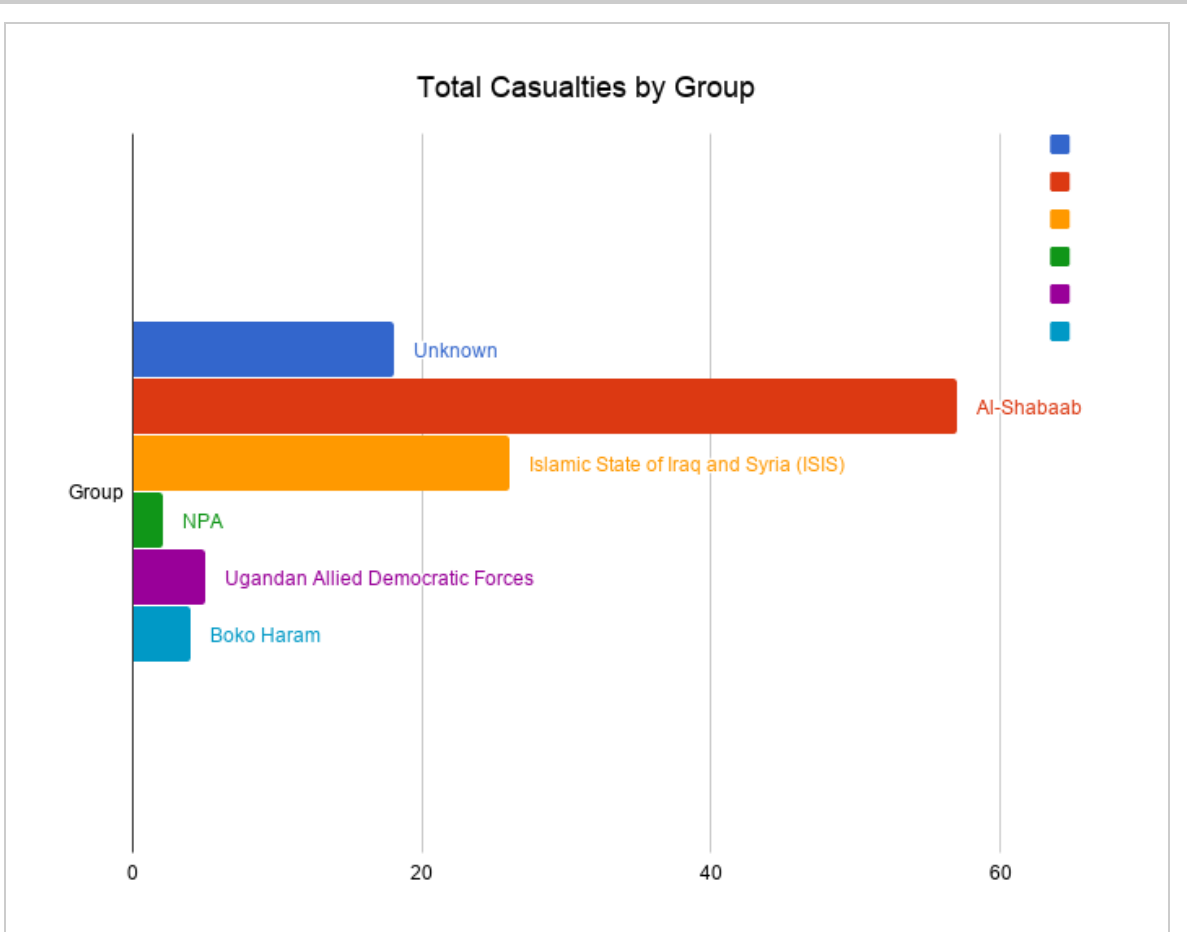

Boko Haram is suspected in an attack in Khadamari, Nigeria, where a group of militants stormed a local government building on Thursday. Three soldiers and one civilian were killed.

Hamas is suspected in an attack on Israel's Eshkol district. Residents of the area reported seeing IEDs attached to balloons in their neighborhood on Wednesday, but no casualties resulted.

Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS) is suspected in a car bombing in Mosul, Iraq that killed two people and injured twenty-four on Thursday.

New People's Army (NPA) are suspected in three attacks this week, all in the Philippines. On Monday, the group ambushed a police officer, killing one in Sumpong. The same day, NPA rebels burned five tractors and a vintage vehicle in Manjuyod. On Thursday in Alcala, militants burned equipment belonging to a construction company, but left no casualties.

Ugandan Allied Democratic Forces are suspected to have burned down two Ebola treatment centers in Butembo, DRC.

Regions

Western Europe

Northern Ireland suffered one attack this week. An unknown group described as "dissident Republicans," are responsible for a car bomb attack in Northern Ireland's Londonderry. No one was harmed in the attack.

Netherlands were hit by their first attack since last August when an unknown person used two hand grenades in Zwolle. No one was injured in the attack, but it damaged three cars and five homes.

Greece also suffered its first attack of the year this week. On Friday, a car bomb in Athens' Glyfada neighborhood injured one person.

Middle East

Israel was hit by one attack in Eshkol district. Residents of the area reported seeing IEDs attached to balloons in their neighborhood on Wednesday, but no casualties resulted.

Iraq also suffered one attack this week. ISIS is suspected in a car bombing in Mosul that killed two people and injured twenty-four on Thursday.

Africa

Somalia was hit by two attacks this week. Al-Shabaab militants gunned down nine street cleaners on Tuesday in a village near Mogadishu. On Thursday, Al-Shabaab claimed an attack in Mogadishu, where militants detonated a bomb in a business center and then began shooting. Eleven people were killed and thirty-five injured.

Nigeria suffered one attack this week in Khaddamari, where suspected Boko Haram militants stormed a local government building on Thursday. Three soldiers and one civilian were killed.

Mali was also hit by one attack this week. Unknown terrorists hid an IED in a corpse, killing 17 people, in Diankabou, on Wednesday.

Asia Pacific

Philippines suffered three attacks this week. NPA militants are suspected of ambushing a police officer, killing one in Sumpong on Monday. The same day, NPA rebels burned five tractors and a vintage vehicle in Manjuyod. The group is also suspected in an attack in Alcala on Thursday. Militants burned equipment belonging to a construction company, but left no casualties.

Attacks Worldwide

Our Solution

We believe that education is the key to a better future. Rise to Peace (R2P) is a 503c organization focused on empowering peace, education and tolerance as tools to eliminate extremist ideology. Our Active Intelligence

Database is an initiative created by the Rise To Peace team in an effort to spread information and facilitate education on the threat of global terrorism. We record daily global terrorist attacks with our innovative Active Intelligence Database, used by world class researchers. Please click here for more information. All donations are tax deductible.