

This Week in Terrorism

04/22/2019-04/28/2019

Total Attacks: 11 Total Killed: 45 Total Injured: 86

Compared to this time last year, attacks decreased by 15%, fatalities decreased by 2%, and injuries increased by 21%.

Source

Largest Attack

A large explosion in Jisr al-Shughour, Syria killed eighteen and injured forty on Wednesday. The bomb collapsed a four-story building and damaged other nearby structures.

Attackers

Al-Qaeda is responsible for a mine blast that killed one soldier and wounded three others in Kasserine, Tunisia.

The Bangsamoro Islamic Freedom Fighters (BIFF) is responsible for a roadside bombing that injured a policeman in Ampatuan, Philippines.

Boko Haram is suspected in an attack on Kofia Island, Cameroon. The militants killed four people and injured four more.

Hayat Tahrir al Sham is suspected in an attack in Aleppo, where seventeen people were killed and thirty injured on Saturday.

The Islamic State West Africa Province (ISWAP) stormed an army outpost in Borno, Nigeria on Friday. Fighters in pick-up trucks and stolen armored personnel carriers and motorcycles, all wielding machine guns, causing unknown casualties.

Naxals are suspected in an attack in Bajaur, India, where two policemen were killed and another one injured on Saturday.

Regions

Middle East

Syria suffered three attacks this week. An unknown group is responsible for an explosion in the Idlib province, which killed 18 people and injured 40 others on Wednesday. The cause of the explosion is not clear, but it collapsed a four-story building. The same day, unknown terrorists detonated a bomb that killed a civilian and wounded five others in a Damascus neighborhood. On Saturday, Hayat Tahrir al Sham is suspected to have carried out an attack in Aleppo, where seventeen people were killed and thirty injured on Saturday.

Africa

Cameroon suffered one attack this week. Boko Haram is suspected in an attack on Kofia Island, Cameroon. The militants killed four people and injured four more.

Nigeria was hit by one attack as well. The Islamic State West Africa Province (ISWAP) stormed an army outpost in Borno, Nigeria on Friday. Fighters in pick-up trucks and stolen armored personnel carriers and motorcycles, all wielding machine guns, causing unknown casualties.

Tunisia also suffered one attack. Al-Qaeda is responsible for a mine blast that killed one soldier and wounded three others in Kasserine, Tunisia.

Asia Pacific

India suffered two attacks this week. Naxals are suspected in an attack in Bajaur, India, where two policemen were killed and another one injured on Saturday. On Sunday, unknown militants threw a grenade at a polling station in Kulgam, but left no casualties.

Pakistan was hit by one attack this week. Two security personnel were killed and two more injured in Sheva on Saturday, following an IED attack.

Philippines suffered two attacks this week. The Bangsamoro Islamic Freedom Fighters (BIFF) is responsible for a roadside bombing that injured a policeman in Ampatuan. Unknown motorcycle-riding terrorists hurled a hand-grenade that detonated inside an electric firm in Cabanatuan, Philippines.

Attacks Worldwide

Our Solution

We believe that education is the key to a better future. Rise to Peace (R2P) is a 503c organization focused on empowering peace, education and tolerance as tools to eliminate extremist ideology. Our Active Intelligence Database is an initiative created by the Rise To Peace team in an effort to spread information and facilitate education on the threat of global terrorism. We record daily global terrorist attacks with our innovative Active Intelligence Database, used by world class researchers. Please click here for more information. All donations are tax deductible.